CONGRESSMAN JACKSON RESPONDS TO MEDIA REPORTS ABOUT PRELIMINARY ETHICS REVIEW

"I am cooperating fully with the preliminary review being conducted by the Office of Congressional Ethics (OCE). I was notified last week about the inquiry and am eager to answer any questions and provide any information to the OCE about my actions related to last year's vacant Senate seat.

"As I said when the Blagojevich scandal first broke back in December, I have done nothing wrong and reject pay-to-play politics. I'm confident that this new ethics office -- which I voted in favor of creating -- will be able to conduct a fair and expeditious review and dismiss this matter."
